“With the new “TAILOR-MADE STAY” offer, My One Hotel is yet again proving that it's a real 'customer friendly' company, always moving with the times – said Adalgisa Conte, Group Director Sales & Marketing – We want to offer each of our guests the perfect stay and we believe this means giving them the opportunity to create the right package to suit their personal needs, choosing from the wide range of services and facilities that our hotels have to offer. What's more is that everything is chosen and booked before they arrive from the comfort of their own computer”.

My One Hotel began in Parma in October 2005, with the aim of becoming an international company. Today My One Hotel consists of 11 hotels across Northern and Central Italy. The group's continuing development will see new hotels opening by 2011 with the aim of further establishing the My One Hotel brand in the North of Italy.
